

Support HCFVC on GivingTuesday!

A Note from Amy Towner, CEO...

Dear Amy,

Today is GivingTuesday, a meaningful opportunity to come together in the spirit of philanthropy and shared purpose! Created more than a decade ago in response to the commercialism of Black Friday and Cyber Monday, GivingTuesday serves as a powerful reminder of what truly matters by uplifting meaningful causes and investing in the well-being of our community.

Today, Health Care Foundation for Ventura County (HCFVC) invites you to join us in supporting one of the most vulnerable patient populations Ventura County Health Care Agency serves; newborns in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) at Ventura County Medical Center. Your support will help provide Stryker Nara Baby Bassinets, essential equipment that enhances safety, comfort, and bonding for infants during their earliest and most critical moments.

You can make your gift in the way that works best for you, including via annual leave donation, payroll deduction, or credit card. Your donation may also help reduce your end-of-year tax burden, providing an additional benefit for your generosity.

How Stryker Nara Baby Bassinets Improve Care for Local NICU Patients

New baby bassinets offer adjustable height for safer positioning, greater comfort, and improved bonding for newborns in the VCMC NICU, while also reducing physical strain on the nursing staff. Thanks to donors like you, previous baby bassinet donations have received enthusiastic praise from staff and families, showing the meaningful difference your support brings to Ventura County Health Care Agency.
